Encouragement for a Troubled Heart

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.” John 14:1-3

It was the night of the Last Supper. Jesus had just told His disciples that He would be leaving them. Obviously, they were troubled and saddened upon hearing this news. So Jesus followed up with a word of comfort and assurance to their hearts.

Maybe you are very troubled today. Maybe you have recently received some bad news. The Lord says to you in the midst of your sadness, “Trust Me, My child. I know what I am doing and have it all under control.”

Without question, we will face difficulties and trials in this world. Yet in the midst of it all, we can be encouraged and have peace. Our Savior promised to come for us one day. He promised that we will be with Him in a place He has wonderfully prepared for us, a place far beyond all comparison. Until that time, we simply walk by faith, trusting Him for our strength, peace, and power.
